the soliciting of bets and the increase of natronage.

The revocation of the licenses of all licensed institutions proven guilty of harboring handbook makers has only resulted in driving the makers of books into places which cannot be reached by this means.

For this reason, I have had the ordinance prepared, and if it is passed by the city council I feel confident it will put a stop to this sort of gambling. The ordinance will cut off all information as to odds, riders, starters, etc., now given general currency starters, etc., now given general through the medium of the tickers.
